Tucumcari is in the throes of a bitter prohibition campaign with the forces apparently about equally divided.

Advertisers should remember that the Clovis News has a large circulation and advertising value should be considered according ly.

Many vegetable and produce wagons are appearing on the streets daily, giving this the appearance of an old settled agricultural community.

Tucumcari is sore because Clovis did not send for their ball team. The best explanation of this might be given by saying that Clovis does not have the ball craze like many of our neighboring towns and it is even difficult to maintain a good team

The News desires to thank Roland Wicks for a fine large melon left at our sanctum Monday. Mr. Wicks raises the "Halbut Honey" melon, which is considered the best on the market. He disposed of his melons to the Central Market and Bills Grocery.

A homeseeker, who had traveled all over the west, said that the fertility of Curry County soil exceeded that of any section that he had visited in his extensive travels. They are all favorably impressed with Curry County. Its the coming country of the great southwest.

They sent six lanche. auto loads of "live wire" boosters into the country, who, according to reports, succeeded in stirring up considerable enthusiasm. Something of the kind should be done here, although it is now generally known that the Curry County fair is the big ANNUAL event.

W. B. Davis, who formerly resided in Clovis and who left here seven years ago, returning to Kentucky, returned Monday and is looking for a homes ead. He s accompanied by his son.

TREES! TREES! TREES!

If you want home grown trees that are healthy and propagated from varieties that have been tested and do best in the west, it will pay you to investigate all that to have nurseries on the plains. Plainview Nursery will pay $5 00 a day and expenses to anyone who will investigate of they do not find that we have the largest and best stock of home grown trees anywhere in Texas west of Fort Worth or in New Mexico. We are practically the only institution that has a stock of fruit trees ready for the market. For your good and ours too, we solicit your investigation.
